

OPERATING PRINCIPALS

TRANSPARENCY AND HONESTY

We promote a transparent work environment where results are openly questioned, and individuals are accountable and responsible for their own contributions. Whether it be while discussing a reimbursement claim with a funding agency, presenting results to a client, or around our board room table during a staff meeting; we strive to be as transparent as possible. Transparency and honesty are the marching orders!

