

VISION

Our vision is to become one of the top applied forest research centers in North America, as well as a recognized knowledge hub and agent of change in the way northern hardwoods and mixed forest management is conducted.