TRAINING TOOLS

Training and knowledge transfer are at the forefront of everything we do at NHRI. Our team has very considerable training experience within the forestry sector. NHRI's training capacity is very flexible and responsive to our clients' needs.

We offer a variety of training in several formats:

- On-site forest workshops
- One-on-one custom training
- Development of training videos and multimedia tools
- Demonstrations/simulations
- Technology-inclined workshops
- Boardroom training
